

Honduras

October Newsletter | David and Teresa, Levi and Zoey

Praises

- Groove is being found in Teresa's class
- Rain has finally started to fall
- Residency renewal (we have another year!)

Prayer

- Family dynamics with a teenager added to our family
- Zoey's clavicle to heal well and quickly
- More teachers at El Camino

It was so wonderful to see most of you face-to-face this summer, so a newsletter seemed a little pointless. However, since returning to Honduras our lives have, once again, gotten busy. They have also changed SO MUCH. So what's so different? Read on to find out.

Zoey

Zoey has started Pre-K, but not at El Camino. We do not have enough teachers for Pre-K class this year, so Zoey is attending the public school in Lucinda twice a week. She is loving it! She has made new friends, gets to color, cut, and paste a ton and is learning more Spanish each day.

Levi

Levi is now in Second Grade and loving it too! He has a wonderful teacher who is challenging him, which is hard to do. He also got to carry the American flag for our school in the Honduran Independence Day parade in Balfate. He did a great job!

Okeli

Many of you heard Okeli's story while we were in the States. Since we have returned, he has moved in with us. He still visits his grandma, but he now has his own room in our home. He told me that, "Nobody has ever had time for me like you guys do. Time to talk. Time to joke around. Time to care." While life with a teenager is a whole new world to our family, he brings joy and laughter into our home. The kids love having a big brother figure as well... most of the time.

David and Teresa

Ministry is back in full swing for both of us. Dave is back to work in maintenance, reaching the boys in Jiu Jitsu, and building relationships with the men around him. The new school year has been in session for almost two months, and I am finally starting to find my groove. This group of kiddos is very different from other groups I have had in the past. I have prayed a lot for them and am learning to love and see them through Christ's eyes.

Thank YOU!

Our time back in the States this summer was wonderful. We felt so loved while we were there, and none of it would have been possible without you. Thank you for your love, kindness, and generosity during our season of transition.
